

BIP course on Mediterranean Marine Biology (3 ECTS)

UNIVERSITAT DE
BARCELONA

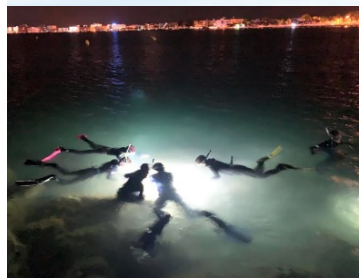

This Blended Intensive Program (BIP) gathers 20-25 international students from at least 3 universities across Europe

I. Biodiversity of the underwater Mediterranean Sea ecosystem
(including taxonomy, evolutionary biology, ecology)

II. Underwater sampling techniques
(incl. snorkelling & diving)

III. Human impacts on biodiversity & sustainable management (incl. visits to fish auction & dialogue with MPA authorities)

The course is fully funded through ERASMUS, in the framework of the CHARM-EU University Alliance!

The course will be given in the form of a:

1. Series of five 2-h online sessions
(May 6th-20th, 2026)

2. Physical mobility to
*Field facilities of University of Barcelona
in the Town of Roses,
Cap de Creus Natural Park,
NE Spain
(June 1st-5th, 2026)*

Date/times and Zoom for course info sessions:

Jan 15, 2026 Feb 3, 2026

17.00 - 18.00, CET
(18.00 - 19.00 EET)

Minimum requirements:

- MSc-level course (incl. 4th yr BSc)
- English language
- Swim/snorkel/dive: diving is not a requirement (dive certificate must be provided if diving is envisioned)

More information
(incl. registration)
can be found here:

Contact:

Manel Gazo - manelgazo@ub.edu
Christian Pansch-Hattich cpanschh@abo.fi

